

MARYLAND SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF FOUNDATION

BOARD OF DIRECTORS BIOGRAPHY: MICHAEL A. SPOCHART

POSITION HELD: PRESIDENT

- Michael A. Spochart holds a M.S. in Organizational Leadership and a B.S. in Management from the Johns Hopkins University.
- Michael is an adjunct Professor at American University and a senior federal law enforcement leader in Washington, D.C. who has a strong passion for public safety, the community, and non-profit associations. Michael's passion for mentoring has led many of his mentees to be successful in both their personal and professional lives.
- Michael understands the strength in people making the difference and as a result during his career, has been given responsibilities far beyond those of his peers. Michael has repeatedly been sought after for his subject matter expertise and has served on numerous National Special Security Events (NSSE), has led and managed several international initiatives for non-profit associations, and was honored to have been an innovative team member for the U.S. Department of Justice's Executive Session on Police Leadership, which was a five-year initiative for the federal government. Michael's continued passion for the community and public safety led him to be invited as a panel member for U.S. Congress' first Criminology and Criminal Justice Policy Coalition.
- Michael continues to play a critical role in the federal government, but remains committed to his passion for the Maryland School for the Deaf Foundation. Michael resides with his wife, Brandi, and their son, Kyler, in Frederick, Maryland.
