

MARYLAND SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF FOUNDATION

BOARD OF DIRECTORS BIOGRAPHY: SARAH-JANE FLOOK

POSITION HELD: PROGRAM COORDINATOR

- Sarah-Jane Flook has worked as the MSD Foundation Program Coordinator since March 2014. Originally born and educated in the UK, Sarah pursued a career with the British Diplomatic Service spanning 26 years. During that time Sarah worked overseas at embassy locations in Africa, Europe, the Middle East and the Caribbean. Her favorite tour involved three years as Vice Consul at the British High Commission Bridgetown, located on the island of Barbados.
- Sarah brings her broad experience gained during her government career to her role of MSDF Program Coordinator. She particularly enjoys the opportunity to connect MSD students with MSDF scholarship opportunities and also to promote ASL learning in the Frederick community by coordinating the MSDF ASL Community Classes program.
- Sarah met her husband Nathan, a former US Marine in Khartoum, Sudan where they both served their respective governments. They currently live in Middletown, MD and have two teenage children Daniel and Amelia. Sarah is proud to have travelled to over 50 countries and has many more on her list to explore in years ahead!
